CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER APPOINTED FOR PERKOA ZINC PROJECT, BURKINA FASO

AIM Resources Limited are pleased to announce the appointment of Mr Scott Lowe as Chief Operating Officer for the Perkoa Zinc Project in Burkina Faso, West Africa.

Scott is a senior business executive with more than 25 years experience and a proven track record in a variety of senior management roles across a number of countries. He possesses tertiary qualifications in Mining Engineering and postgraduate qualifications in Business Management. He also holds a Mine Manager’s Certificate of Competency and a Diploma in Marine Terminal Operations completed at King’s Point Merchant Marine Academy in New York, USA.

Previously, Scott was employed by BHP Billiton for over 20 years, in a number of roles including Vice President Operations Ingwe in South Africa, Vice President HSEC for BHPB’s global Energy Coal businesses, General Manager Business Development & Operating Excellence, Mine Manager and Marketing & Logistics co-ordinator.

In addition to his mining career, Scott worked for P&O, one of the world’s largest infrastructure and stevedoring companies, at vice president level with global responsibilities covering a range of complex business and cultural environments.

Operating from AIM Resources’ head office in Sydney, Scott will oversee management of the Project from mining and processing, to transport of zinc concentrates. This appointment is effective from 1 November 2007.

AIM Resources’ Managing Director, Mr Marc Flory said, “the appointment of Mr Lowe to the team provides additional strength to the Company as we continue development of the Perkoa Zinc Project. Scott’s’ experience in the fields of mining and logistics will be an asset to the Company as we progress in our development of the first zinc mine in West Africa”.
